

Bylaws for the Frio County 4-H Claybusters

Revised September 14, 2009

I

Name and Objectives

- A. The name of this organization shall be the Frio County 4-H Claybusters.
- B. This shall be a non profit organization for the purpose of promoting education through 4-H club work.
- C. The objectives of this organization shall be:
 - 1) To provide learning situations for the development of leadership, responsibility, and effective citizenship.
 - 2) To provide educational and challenging experiences that will enable young people to become knowledgeable and skilled in their selected project areas.
 - 3) To provide information and training in other 4-H activities as members' interest dictate.
 - 4) To help each member experience growth and achievement, as well as be of service to others.

II

Membership

- A. Membership in this organization shall be open to all youth who have reached the age of nine (9) years old or have entered the third grade and did not reach the age of nineteen (19) years old by 31 August of the previous 4-H year regardless of socioeconomic level, race, color, sex, national origin, or disability.
- B. The age as of 31 August preceding the start of the 4-H year (September through August) is the official age of each participant for the entire year.
- C. New members must complete an individual on-line 4-H enrollment via 4-H Connect before being accepted into membership of the club. All members must re-enroll on-line via 4-H Connect each 4-H year before November 1st.
- D. Members are not required to pay dues, but will be expected to participate in all fund raising activities of the club.
- E. As a project club, the only 4-H project available through the Frio County 4-H Claybusters is and shall be Shooting Sports (Project Code 10084). Any member desiring to participate in 4-H projects other than Shooting Sports will need to enroll in another 4-H club for those activities.
- F. All first year members must attend a range safety meeting conducted by the club prior to participating in any shooting activities.
- G. In order for a member of the club to remain in good standing, and be eligible to receive any money from the club in the form of entry fees, round fees, travel expenses, or other reimbursements, that member must meet the following requirements:
 - 1) Must attend regular meetings during the 4-H year.
 - 2) Must participate in weekly practices. (February 1st through July 31st)
 - 3) Must participate in all fund raising activities of the club, unless excused by the executive committee. Fund Raising activities include the following events:
 - March Sporting Clays Shoot
 - July Big Blast Shoot
